5 Million Milk Caps Reap Mooola for Schools

Congratulations to Louisville Elementary School for returning the 5 millionth cap!

Louisville Elementary was one of the first schools to sign up back in November of 2012. They have collected over 55,583 milk bottle caps, netting them nearly $2800 for supplies for their After School Computer Club.

"The caps come from the students and other people in Louisville including past students and parents who no longer have kids that are elementary aged," said Jan Schenderlein, Para Educator at the school. "The kids are always eager to bring their caps in."

APRIL Happy Easter!

Dear Friends,

Many years ago, when we started the Moo News, it seemed right to greet our wonderful customers as "Friends." So often when someone asked me where I worked, and I replied Longmont Dairy, they would say they knew all about our delicious milk because they were customers, or their kids wouldn't drink any other milk, or how many bottles they used in a week, or how many years they were our customer. EVERY time, I was blown away that people enjoyed our milk so much. Those compliments always humbled me. When our daughter-in-law moved to California, I believe she missed the milk in glass bottles as much as she missed Colorado!!

Today I met a new doctor and as we visited she asked where I worked. I told her Longmont Dairy. She said enthusiastically that she and her family love our milk. Her 3-year-old even considers it "dessert" at the end of the day. As she left the room I thanked her for being our customer and she gave me one of the best compliments I've ever received about the Dairy. The reason I share this sweet story, of excitement and gratitude from our "friend," with everyone at Longmont Dairy, is to thank our amazing team of employees who makes this great milk every day. We couldn't do it without you!

Happy Easter to our milk-drinking friends and our wonderful team!

Take care,

Susan

MOOO RECIPES

Blackberry Yoghurt No-Bake Pie

Kids can help make this delicious, creamy pie.

- 1 ½ cups graham cracker crumbs
- ¼ cup melted butter
- ¼ cup milk
- 1 cup LDF Whipping Cream
- 2 cups Blackberry Noosa Yoghurt (or flavor of your choice)
- 1 teaspoon granulated gelatin
- 1 cup fresh Blackberries, washed

Mix graham cracker crumbs with melted butter and press down into the bottom of an 8-inch springform cake pan, or a 9-inch pie pan. Place in refrigerator.

Warm the milk in a small pan, but do not boil. Add the gelatin and dissolve. Remove from heat.

Whip cream, in a medium sized chilled bowl, until peaks form. Fold in the yoghurt completely. Add the dissolved gelatin and milk mixture combining well. Pour the cream and yoghurt mixture on top of the cookie base, smooth the top with a spatula. Refrigerate 5 hours or overnight. Top with fresh fruit or blackberries before serving.

We're Nuts about Noosa! Why?

- Aussie style Noosa Yoghurt is made locally, in Bellvue, Colorado.
- It's made with fresh, local, whole milk.
- Every batch of Noosa (except plain) is infused with a touch of pure, North American, wildflower honey.
- Fresh fruit is key to Noosa's delicious flavors.

Noosa is so rich and creamy that we couldn't resist adding more options.

- Raspberry Lemonade Yoghurt is a surprise. It combines fresh Meyer lemons with juicy raspberries for a taste that makes you think of summer. 4-packs of 4 oz. tubs.
- Blackberry Yoghurt is made with plump, ripe Marion blackberries. Honey and berries combine for a perfect, creamy, sweet and tangy taste. 8 oz. tubs.
- Terrific Toppings! We are excited to add Coffee Chocolate Almond, and Caramel Chocolate Pecan to the Noosa Mates line up. Great for a delicious dessert or a quick snack.
