Congratulations! Eggnog Design Winner is Announced

Colorado native and Arvada resident, Jill Krupp, is the 2012 winner of Longmont Dairy's 13th Annual Eggnog Bottle Design Contest. Jill's design was unanimously chosen by our staff to be our 2012 eggnog design winner.

The winning design incorporates the Colorado flag, celebrating the selection of Colorado to provide this year's Christmas/Holiday tree for the U.S. Capitol.

Jill is a landscape designer and enjoys quilting and watercolors. She laughingly admits that she will paint anything. "In my family, we are milk snobs. We only drink Longmont Dairy Milk and really miss it whenever we go on vacation."

The winning drawing and runner up designs may be seen online at www.LongmontDairy.com.

Dear Friends,

In October, 1992, we sent out the first issue of Moo News! Hardly seems like 20 years could have passed so quickly!! We've seen many changes in people and technologies, delivery methods and even products we bring to you! Moo News is no longer in just 1 or 2 colors, but now in full color. Thank you all so much for being our loyal readers and customers for all these years and months. It is our privilege to bring new recipes and nutritional information to you each month. And we especially appreciate your feedback via phone calls or emails.

I love the TV show "Chopped". Over the years, I have tried to always include at least one or two ingredients in our recipes that use our own LDF products. This month, we are featuring a recipe with 4 LDF ingredients. Hope you enjoy!

What do you think about our new Mooove Colorado campaign (www.longmontdairy.com/mooove)? We are having lots of fun seeing your "Mooove" photos and hearing your stories and comments about how LDF milk helps you keep active and fit. We have always known that milk helps give you energy and endurance in all your activities. Keep up the good work and keep "Moooving"!

Once again 4 packs of Longmont Dairy Artisan Cheese are available as a part of great Colorado fall comfort food. Please enjoy the savings and variety of buying a 4 pack.

Take care till next time,

Susan Boyd
